DETAILED ACTION

Claims 11, 13-15 objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim:

Claim 11 is dependant on claims 9 and 10.

Claim 13 is dependant on claims 1, 9, and 10.

Claim 14 is dependant on claims 12, 9, and 10.

Claim 15 is dependant on claims, 1, 12, 9, and 10.

See MPEP § 608.01(n).

Accordingly, the claims 11, 13-15 have not been further treated on the merits.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-6, drawn to scheduling the transmission of prioritized data, classified in class 709, subclass 232.
- II. Claims 7-10, drawn to segmenting and interleaving data for reception and transmission of data through a bus, classified in class 710, subclass 107.
- III. Claim 12, drawn to bus allocation according to information being monitored, classified in class 370, subclass 232.

Inventions I, II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the case of subcombination I has separate utility of prioritizing data transmission which can be used in any system which transmits data. It is clearly not unique to transmitting data in a communication application to a recording medium. In the case of subcombination II has separate utility as segmenting and interleaving data for reception and transmission in any system with a bus. In the case of subcombination III has separate utility such as monitoring data payloads and allocating the transmission for a network environment. Clearly non of the categories are fundamentally tied together and all represent separate different parts of data transmission. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. And because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Matthew E. Kessler whose telephone number is (571) 270-5005. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday 7:00 am - 5:30 pm EST.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Jason Cardone can be reached on (571)272-3933. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
